WILMINGTON — Harvest Christian Academy (HCA) announced today that it will hold a special event on January 24th, 2018 to commemorate National School Choice Week (NSCW) from January 21st to 27th, 2018. Harvest Christian Academy is located at 2205 Lancaster Avenue, Wilmington, DE 19805. HCA is a Christian school serving grades Pre-K-6.

The event, which will begin at 9:00 am on 1/24/18, in the Chapel, will feature students performing the National School Choice Week dance. In the evening on the 24th, at 4 - 6 pm, Family Game Time will be held in the school gym. The event is open to students, parents, teachers, and staff. Media may RSVP.

National School Choice Week started in 2011 and is now the world's largest annual education-related celebration. The goal of NSCW, which features participation from tens of thousands of schools and organizations, is to shine a positive spotlight on effective education options for children.

During National School Choice Week, schools across America celebrate the challenging, motivating, and effective education they provide to students. At the same time, parents use the week to learn more about the education options available to their children in advance of the upcoming school year.

National School Choice Week is nonpartisan and nonpolitical, and is not related to any legislative advocacy effort.
